

Testimonies of Deliverance from Demonic Influences

An angel zapping a demon to answer a believer's prayer

My Facebook friend Kasia da Silva shared with me two marvelous testimonials of deliverance from demonic influence. This is something many preachers don't talk about. For example, did you know that by even touching an object used in the occult such as an Ouija board you can pick up an evil hitchhiking spirit? My former pastor taught me to ask the Lord to cleanse anything I picked up from the post office before I touch it!

The Deliverance and Healing of Kasia's Mother

I prayed for my mother to be healed of a pinched nerve that the Physical Therapist said would take 10 weeks of PT to heal (in her upper shoulder arm). She had to go for weekly sessions. So she asked me to pray for her when it first happened. She was in horrible pain. So I prayed and nothing happened. I was actually led to cast out a spirit of infirmity. Well, nothing happened and I knew I prayed in faith, so I told her there must be something else going on and left it alone.

The next evening she was in excruciating pain again (even after the Dr. Visit in which she got extra strong Tylenol. It didn't help much). So I picked her up and brought her to my house to spend the night. I prayed for her again being led to try to cast a demon out. She was laying on the couch. I had placed my hand on her forehead and she became very pale and her skin temperature dropped to feeling suddenly cold. Then the arm that she had the injury on suddenly kept jerking uncontrollably, like someone having a seizure just on their arm. I commanded it to stop and it did then I confronted her again saying, something must be going on, and asked her to think about it during the night. Then I went to bed.

The next morning when I went downstairs she handed me a Magnetic necklace a friend from work gave her. The friend said that Magnetic jewelry had powers to heal people by balancing or affecting their energy.

Previously, a week before my mother had asked me if I thought Magnetic jewelry was Occultic. I told her that I didn't know but I would investigate it. So when I investigated it I found out it was based on this Yin and Yang theory which is Chinese healing occultism. So I told her NOT to get involved in that.

So then so goes and accepts and wears this necklace from her friend and got the injury shortly thereafter!

After she gave me the necklace and confessed she was healed. Her Physical Therapist was shocked!

Deliverance of Kasia's Daughter from Nail-Biting

My daughter was healed of chronic nail-biting when I finally resorted to casting a demon out. It was terrible. She had her fingers in her mouth constantly. I thought it was anxiety-related. I bought her bad-tasting nail polish. Nothing worked. I got tired of scolding her about

Then one day I had an idea. I said, while we are at it I will anoint your nails with oil and rebuke that spirit of nail-biting (for lack of knowing what to call it). So then I didn't even think much of it as nothing happened at the time.

Then about a month later my daughter comes to me and shows me her nails and they looked nice and she said, "Mom, I stopped biting my nails. And I didn't even try to stop. I realized I haven't been nail-biting since my nails started growing." I said. Wow, come to think of it, I haven't had to yell at you about it in a while now. She hasn't bitten her nails since.

BUT, an incident happened sometime later when my daughter came into my room at night saying she was scared. So then we talked about what could be wrong and she said she was having strange sensations on her legs and it felt like something crawling under her skin. I thought that was really weird. So then she said. "It feels like the SAME sensation I used to feel under my nails when I was doing the nail-biting."

I said, "You were feeling a weird sensation under your nails?"

She said, "Yeah, I thought everybody felt that."

I said, "No, I never felt things crawling under my nails."

She said, "Well, it moved to my legs!!"

So then I realized that I only commanded the demon off her nails and commanded it to stop her from nail-biting BUT I never cast it out of her.

So then I commanded it to come OUT of her totally. And nothing appeared to happen at the moment. So she got up to go back to her room and suddenly ran to the bathroom and threw up.

Well, ever since she threw up those strange sensations of things crawling under her skin are gone.

I think she might have got these in the first place generational from my mother who had been into the Occult and my Great grandmother who had been an actual Medium.

When I was a new Christian I specifically denounced all generational witchcraft and commanded all demons out of my life AND I did not dive into Spiritual gifts for this reason. Due to the generational garbage, I didn't want any imposter Spiritual gifts so I stuck strictly to the Bible and wasn't even interested and did not even pursue them until at least 5 years later. I would rather have good Bible foundations. I am still Bible first, spiritual gifts tested and scrutinized second.
