

British Government Hides Vatican War Treachery From Empire

Opening Session Of The League Of Nations In Geneva

This is the continuation of the series, Antichrist And His Ten Kingdoms – By Albert Close and the previous post in the series, False Interpretations of Divine Prophecy.

This is history you won't get from Wikipedia or any Establishment recognized academic source on the Internet! It was written when the Britain still had an empire. I think it's possible the Jesuits / RCC were the ones behind the decline of the British empire because Britain is officially supposed to be Protestant. British Protestant missionaries preached the Gospel in all its colonies around the world! In 1979 when I went to England, a lady who saw me distributing Gospel literature on the street asked me who I am. I told her I am a missionary. She replied, "Britain used to be the greatest exporter of missionaries in the world. Now we have to import them!"

The League of Nations was the Devil's snare for Protestant nations. There were 52 represented at Geneva in the League of Nations, from 1919 to 1939, when it collapsed, and nearly all were Roman Catholic with Roman Catholic Secretaries. Sir Eric Drummond, the British Secretary General for 10 years, was a Roman Catholic. He became a convert in 1903 whilst at the Foreign Office. The Assistant Secretary for Britain was John C. Epstein. He was a convert to Rome in 1919.

When the Pope's duplicity was severely criticized at the League Meeting in Sept., 1929, Sir Eric Drummond the Catholic Secretary cut the criticism out of the League's Official Report. This nearly caused a strike amongst the official reporters at Geneva. Manchester Guardian, Sept. 21st, 1929.

The Duke of Wellington in his day warned the nation of the danger and utter failure of the First League of Nations in 1816—the Holy Alliance. Wellington had proved by years of war and diplomacy that Roman Catholic European statesmen could not be trusted in times of International crisis. Had the League of Nations brought about universal Peace it would have made the Lord Jesus Christ a false Prophet.

Rome at the British Foreign Office.

The British Government has for many years past been dominated by a Roman and Anglo-Roman Foreign Office Staff which, for the first year and a half of the Spanish War, misled the nation with false news, by denying all knowledge of German and Italian armies in Spain.

At the League of Nations the name of God must never be mentioned officially, and no prayers to the Almighty offered up for guidance at any session! How can it be Divine?

The Romanized Foreign Office Officials.

Sir Samuel Hoare, and Lord Halifax, Ambassadors to Spain and the U.S.A., are extreme Anglo-Romanists, who believe in the Mass. Sir Robert Vansittart, the Permanent Under Secretary from 1930 to 1937, is either Romanist or Anglo-Romanist, as he has a 16th century Roman altar in his private study, and a painting of the Virgin Mary in the main hall of his residence—so the London Evening News stated. On Jan. 1, 1938, he was appointed Diplomatic Adviser to the Government. He resigned in 1941. Here are some of his appointments:

In 1934, Mr. Cecil Dormer, a Roman Catholic, was sent to Norway—a Protestant country—as British Minister.

In 1935, Mr. C. M. Palaiet, a convert to Rome whilst at the Foreign Office, was sent to Sweden—a Protestant Country—as British Minister.

In 1935, Mr. Francis D'Arcy Osborne was appointed British Ambassador to the Vatican, in violation of the English Act of Settlement.

In 1936, Sir Eric Drummond, another convert whilst at the Foreign Office, was sent to Rome as British Ambassador after leaving the League of Nations.

In 1937, Mr. Ogilvie Forbes, another Roman Catholic, was sent to Spain as Acting British Minister; reported very little about Italian and German troops in Spain.

In 1938, The United States of America, for the first time in history, sent an Irish Roman Catholic Ambassador to Britain, after being assured by our Foreign Office that he was persona grata (fully acceptable or welcome, especially to a foreign government)—Mr. Joseph Kennedy.

Sir Henry Chilston gave his daughter away in marriage at the Roman Catholic Brompton Oratory on Monday, July 11, 1938, so we may presume he also is a Roman Catholic, or at least his family.

Many Ambassadors and Ministers have Roman Catholic wives.

A Jesuit Spy in Lord Burleigh's Cabinet, 1596.

All these things happened whilst Sir Robert Vansittart was in control of the Foreign Office. He was certainly following in the steps of his predecessors, Sir Eyre Crowe and Sir W. G. Tyrrell, who filled the chief offices with Roman Catholics at home and abroad. Sir Robert Vansittart resigned as Diplomatic Adviser in 1941. (See Daily Mail, Jan. 1, 1938).

The Rt. Hon. Anthony Eden strongly resented the questions in the House of Commons by the Rt. Hon. Sir Josiah Wedgwood, when he asked for the names of Roman Catholic Ambassadors, Ministers and Counselors sent to European and other foreign countries. Mr. Eden knew he dare not tell, as the Foreign Office is full of them. They receive the best appointments. These men have control of the nation's profoundest secrets which if disclosed to Priests in the Confessional might easily lead to the downfall of the Empire in a great war, Mr. Eden always resents questions.

Roman Catholics have a perfect right to a fair share of the Public Offices in other departments of State, but they have no right to be in the Cabinet or Foreign Office, Admiralty, War Office or Air Board, where the secrets of the nation's strategy and relations with Foreign Powers are deposited.

Father Henry Garnet the Jesuit, who was hanged for the Gunpowder Plot in 1606, had his spies in Lord Burleigh's Cabinet reporting State secrets to the King of Spain. The fact was discovered a few years ago at Simancas, Spain, by Major Martin Hume when editing the Calendar of Spanish State Papers, Vol. IV., p. 633.

In 1917, when Admiral Sims, Commander-in-Chief of the U.S. Naval Forces, arrived at the Admiralty, he states that he found a cloud of deep depression overshadowing the whole department, because it was realized that secrets were leaking out. It is a remarkable fact that the Foreign Office on Dec. 12, 1914, secretly sent Sir Henry Howard as Envoy to the Vatican in violation of the British Act of Settlement. On Jan. 28, 1915, the German Foreign Office sent the following message from Berlin to the German Embassy, Washington: Foreign Office, Berlin, 28 Jan. 1915,

"No. 106. To John Devoy: Send all possible literature to Collegio Irlandese, Rome. (Irish College).

All British Government Depts. Shield the Pope

"Send by Ambassador's Messenger at once a copy of The Crime against Europe.' Sinn Fein Documents, 1921, No. 1108.

Note that the British Envoy was at the Vatican, and at the same time the Irish Papal College was betraying Britain to her enemies! Such is the Papacy! Rome will always be our enemy. What about our Foreign Office!

We had a Coalition Government in Britain during the 1914-18 Great War. That Government lasted until 1922; a Conservative Government from 1922-29; a Labour Government from 1929-1931; and a National Government from 1931-1943. Not one of these Governments frankly disclosed to the nation and Empire the diabolical Papal plots during that Great War, against the British Throne and Empire. Not only so, but all of these Governments refused to allow Questions to be put in Parliament concerning the treacherous actions of the Popes during the Great War, 1914-1919.

In this World War the British Government down to July 1943, has steadfastly refused in Parliament to sanction the bombing of Rome, in spite of repeated representations from Members. The British Foreign Office for the last 150 years has been under the secret direction of Roman Catholic Permanent Officials.

Very strange that these British Papal wire-pullers did not use their underground powers to save London and other British cities from German and Italian bombs! They must be a powerful group to save Rome for 4 years, in spite of protests, whilst London has been bombed again and again! The United States Air Force, however, ignored the Papal wire-pullers in Britain and U.S.A., and in August, 1943, they heavily bombed Rome, doing great damage.

This drove our British Government and her Foreign Office Roman officials down off the fence.

At Edinburgh on Aug. 30, 1943, Lord Simon, the Lord Chancellor, after the U.S.A. had bombed Rome three times, was driven in sheer self-defense to declare:

"Rome cannot be made immune from attack, merely by declaring it an open city. It would be rather like raising the white flag while continuing the fight." Daily Telegraph, 30/8/43.

ROME NEVER CHANGES HER ENMITY

The Empire had to wait 8 years, until 1921, to learn of the Vatican treachery in 1914 by allowing the Irish College in Rome to be used as a distributing center for enemy propaganda literature. It had to wait 17 years, until 1933, to learn of the treachery of Pope Benedict XV in bestowing his Apostolic Benediction on the Irish rebels in 1916, three weeks before the Easter Week Rebellion. pp.

How many years will the Empire have to wait before it learns the secret lying behind the action of Rt. Hon. Anthony Eden, M.P., Foreign Secy., violating diplomatic practice in Feb. 1934, by first visiting the Pope in the Vatican before calling upon the Duce, the real ruler of Italy? The Act of Settlement is still a Statute Law of England. Mr. Eden knows this quite well!

The Roman Catholic Permanent Officials at the Foreign Office no doubt arranged for this violation of the Act of Settlement. See The Times, February 27th, 1934.

At the Coronation of King George VI in 1937, Mr. Anthony Eden, Foreign Secretary, received the three members of the Pope's Mission to the Coronation at the Foreign Office. A special tribune was erected for them outside Westminster Abbey! They would not go inside the Abbey to witness the coronation of a heretic King, so the Foreign Office Permanent Officials accommodated them outside! It was an insult to the nation, which the Foreign Office winked at. See Daily Telegraph 11.5.37.

What right had the Roman Catholic Foreign Office officials to send Cardinal Bourne in a British warship on a Political Mission to Cairo, Jerusalem, Constantinople, Laibach, the Balkans and to Haifa and Mt. Carmel, in April, 1919? See Evening Standard, March 31st, April 1st and 7th, 1939.

The great Revolution of 1685-1689 was caused by the Government of James II hiding from the nation the Jesuit Plots for the restoration of Popery in the land, and the downfall of England. There is a loud call in Britain today for a reform in the Foreign Office!

Lord Halifax and Sir Samuel Hoare are both Anglo-Romanists who see no danger from Rome, in spite of her blood-guilty acts in Abyssinia and Spain. Halifax eulogized the traitor Bishop Fisher as a holy man in Rochester Cathedral, June 21st, 1935— A Church of England Cathedral!
