

Jim Gibson's Bio

Jim Gibson

Born in 1948

Degrees: B.S. Biology/Composite Science, M.Ed. School Administration

Work experience: Roustabout for Texaco; teacher; school principal; Wal-Mart store manager; district manager for Dollar General; and presently chemistry teacher.

I love the study of the Bible. I have written on many Bible topics. Self-published a book on divorce and remarriage called "The Divorce Dilemma" in 1987. Of course, published a book with Tate Publishing about creationism and evolution: An Appeal to Reason.

Served in the United States Marine Corps. Obtained the rank of Captain. I was an artillery battalion communications officer.