The Coronavirus by Bill Hughes. Chapter 3.
Wuhan-Catholic Connection

This is continued from Chapter 2. Conspiracy

What has been the story from day one in this coronavirus conundrum? The story has been thus, In the public mind, the origin story of coronavirus seems well fixed: in late 2019 someone at the now world-famous Huanan seafood market in Wuhan was infected with a virus from an animal. The rest is part of an awful history still in the making, with Covid-19 spreading from that first cluster in the capital of China's Hubei province to a pandemic that has killed about 350,000 people so far (to the time this article was written).

December 31-January 11, 2020

On December 31 last year, China alerted the WHO to several cases of unusual pneumonia in Wuhan, a city of 11 million people. The virus was unknown. Several of those infected worked at the city's Huanan Seafood Wholesale Market, which was shut down on January 1. As health experts worked to identify the virus amid growing alarm, the number of infections exceeded 40.

On January 5, Chinese officials ruled out the possibility that this was a recurrence of the severe acute respiratory syndrome (SARS) virus – an illness that originated in China and killed more than 770 people worldwide in 2002-2003.

On January 7, officials announced they had identified a new virus, according to the WHO. The novel virus was named 2019-nCoV and was identified as belonging to the coronavirus family, which includes SARS and the common cold.

On January 11, China announced its first death from the virus, a 61-year-old man who had purchased goods from the seafood market. Treatment did not improve his symptoms after he was admitted to hospital and he died of heart failure on the evening of January 9.

January 13 – 19, 2020

The WHO reported on January 13 a case in Thailand, the first outside of China, in a woman who had arrived from Wuhan.

On January 17, as a second death was reported in Wuhan, health authorities in the US announced that three airports would start screening passengers arriving from the city. Authorities in the US, Nepal, France, Australia, Malaysia, Singapore, South Korea, Vietnam and Taiwan confirmed cases over the following days.

January 20 – 26, 2020

On January 20, China reported a third death and more than 200 infections, with cases also reported outside Hubei province including in Beijing, Shanghai and Shenzhen. Meanwhile, a Chinese expert on infectious diseases confirmed human-to-human transmission to state broadcaster CCTV, raising fears of a major outbreak as millions travelled for the Lunar New Year holiday. The cities of Wuhan, Xiantao and Chibi in Hubei province were placed under effective quarantine on January 23 as air and rail departures were suspended. By the end of the week, more areas were placed under lockdown affecting a total of 56 million people. The WHO said that the outbreak did not yet constitute a public emergency of international concern and there was “no evidence” of the virus spreading between humans outside of China.

January 27 – February 2, 2020

On January 30, the WHO declared the coronavirus a global emergency as the death toll in China jumped to 170, with 7,711 cases reported in the country, where the virus had spread to all 31 provinces. By the end of the week, China reported 304 deaths amid 14,380 infections. Within a few days, new cases were confirmed in India, Philippines, Russia, Spain, Sweden and the United Kingdom, Australia, Canada, Germany, Japan, Singapore, the US, the UAE and Vietnam.

On February 2, the Philippines reported the first death outside China, the victim being a Chinese man from Wuhan, the capital of Hubei province where the new coronavirus was detected in late 2019.

March 23 – 29, 2020

In the US, the White House and Senate leaders of both parties struck an agreement on March 25 on a sweeping $2 trillion measure to aid workers, businesses and a healthcare system strained by pandemic. By the end of the week, the US accounted for the highest number of coronavirus infections in the world, recording more than 124,000 cases and 2,000 deaths, more than double the figure two days before. Meanwhile, as the number of cases worldwide surpassed 600,000, with more than 27,000 deaths on March 27, India and South Africa joined the countries to impose lockdowns. Kenya, Kazakhstan and Honduras reported their first deaths, while Johnson announced he had tested positive. In Europe, Spain recorded 838 new coronavirus deaths over the previous 24 hours on March 29, marking the country's highest daily jump in fatalities. The country was now second only to Italy where the death toll shot past 10,000 with 889 new deaths. (taken from Aljazeera, May 18, 2020)

The previous paragraphs make it very clear that the virus had its origins in Wuhan, China back in December. From this epicenter, the virus has now spread all over the world, killing hundreds of thousands of people and disrupting the lives of everyone on this planet. And you say, this has everything to do with Wuhan, China and NOTHING to do with the Vatican! That is very perceptive of you. Here goes.....

"Dr. Anthony Fauci, director of the National Institute of Allergy and Infectious Diseases, warned members of the incoming Trump administration in January 2017 about the inevitability of a "surprise outbreak" of a new disease. He said at the time that the US needed to do more to prepare. "There is no question that there will be a challenge to the coming administration in the arena of infectious diseases," Fauci said during a speech at Georgetown University, adding, "The thing we're extraordinarily confident about is that we're going to see this in the next few years." Business Insider, April 13, 2020

How did Fauci know this? How did he know there would be a pandemic during the Trump administration? Isn't Fauci a doctor? He sounds more like a prophet. , "The thing we're extraordinarily confident about is that we're going to see this in the next few years." Business Insider, April 13, 2020

The following two statements shed on light on how Fauci could be so sure that a pandemic would strike during the Trump administration. "Dr. Anthony Fauci, a member of the coronavirus task force, had previously backed funding for a controversial lab in Wuhan, China, that has been studying the coronavirus in bats, reports said. Fauci's National Institute of Allergy and Infectious Diseases had shelled out a total of $7.4 million to the Wuhan Institute of Virology lab – which has become the focus of theories about the origin of COVID-19, according to Newsweek. The National Institutes of Health, which oversees the NIAID, shut down all funding to the lab last week. "At this time, NIH does not believe that the current project outcomes align with the program goals and agency priorities," a deputy director at the agency wrote in a letter obtained by Politico. There is "increasing confidence" among officials in the Trump administration that the Wuhan Institute of Virology lab is the original site of the virus. A report by Fox News said embassy officials warned in January 2018 about inadequate safety there. The NIH defended its funding of the lab in a statement to Newsweek. April 29, 2020, New York Post.

Fauci's organization, the National Institute of Allergy and Infectious Diseases, sent 7.4 million dollars to the Wuhan laboratory in China, knowing full well that they were studying the coronavirus in bats. If his organization sent 7.4 million dollars to the Wuhan lab, then obviously Fauci was backing the research to the hilt. He not only knew of the experimenting, but backed it with millions of dollars. Fauci also believes in the golden rule. The one who dishes out the dough makes the rules! If Fauci was doling out 7.4 million, would it be safe to say that, he being a medical expert in infectious disease, was also part of what went on at Wuhan? The writing on the wall says yes!! This information is shocking, tying Anthony Fauci to Wuhan and the coronavirus.

The final comment from Newsweek magazine goes even further. "Dr. Anthony Fauci is an adviser to President Donald Trump and something of an American folk hero for his steady, calm leadership during the pandemic crisis. At least one poll shows that Americans trust Fauci more than Trump on the coronavirus pandemic—and few scientists are portrayed on TV by Brad Pitt. But just last year, the National Institute for Allergy and Infectious Diseases, the organization led by Dr. Fauci, funded scientists at the Wuhan Institute of Virology and other institutions for work on gain-of-function research on bat coronaviruses. In 2019, with the backing of NIAID, the National Institutes of Health committed $3.7 million over six years for research that included some gain-of-function work. The program followed another $3.7 million, 5-year project for collecting and studying bat coronaviruses, which ended in 2019, bringing the total to $7.4 million. Many scientists have criticized gain of function research, which involves manipulating viruses in the lab to explore their potential for infecting humans, because it creates a risk of starting a pandemic from accidental release.

SARS-CoV-2, the virus now causing a global pandemic, is believed to have originated in bats. U.S. intelligence, after originally asserting that the coronavirus had occurred naturally, conceded last month that the pandemic may have originated in a leak from the Wuhan lab. (At this point most scientists say it's possible—but not likely—that the pandemic virus was engineered or manipulated.) Dr. Fauci did not respond to Newsweek's requests for comment. NIH responded with a statement that said in part: "Most emerging human viruses come from wildlife, and these represent a significant threat to public health and biosecurity in the US and globally, as demonstrated by the SARS epidemic of 2002-03, and the current COVID-19 pandemic.... scientific research indicates that there is no evidence that suggests the virus was created in a laboratory. The NIH research consisted of two parts. The first part began in 2014 and involved surveillance of bat coronaviruses, and had a budget of $3.7 million. The program funded Shi Zheng-Li, a virologist at the Wuhan lab, and other researchers to investigate and catalogue bat coronaviruses in the wild. This part of the project was completed in 2019." Newsweek, April 28, 2020 because of the possibility of the virus being leaked and causing a pandemic. This is exactly what happened in Wuhan. Dr. Fauci's comments in 2017 would indicate that he knew that would be the case and warned it was coming!!! Was that part of his pre meditated plan to perfect a virus, pay for its research and perfection, and then have it leaked so that millions of people would die? Was Fauci already clear in his mind that once the virus was perfected in Wuhan that he would then have it released in order to infect millions? Was that why Fauci could speak with such arrogance in 2017 that a pandemic would hit the Trump administration? The three news sources that exposed this material are the Business Insider, the New York Post, and Newsweek! This material is shocking!

Researching viruses in laboratories is highly criticized by scientists

Why would Fauci pull such a stunt? What could possibly be his purpose or the purpose of those who control him? A little background on this reprehensible man provides the hidden clues. "His maternal grandfather, Giovanni Abys, was born in Switzerland and was an artist, noted for landscape and portrait painting, magazine illustrations (Italy) as well as graphic design for commercial labels, including olive oil cans. His grandparents emigrated from Italy to the United States in the late 19th century. Fauci grew up Catholic. Fauci attended Regis High School in Manhattan's Upper East Side, where he captained the school's basketball team and graduated in 1958. He then went to the College of the Holy Cross, graduating in 1962 with a Bachelor of Arts in classics. Fauci then attended medical school at Cornell University Medical College where he graduated first in his class with a Doctor of Medicine in 1966. He then completed an internship and residency in internal medicine at the New York Hospital-Cornell Medical Center, now known as New York Presbyterian/Weill Cornell Medicine." So, Fauci is a devout Roman Catholic and attended the College of the Holy Cross. And what do we know about Holy Cross? Wikipedia says, "The College of the Holy Cross, or better known simply as Holy Cross, is a private Jesuit liberal arts college in Worcester, Massachusetts. Founded in 1843, Holy Cross is the oldest Catholic college in New England and one of the oldest in the United States. Opened as a school for boys under the auspices of the Society of Jesus, it was the first Jesuit College in New England. Today, Holy Cross is one of 28 member institutions of the Association of Jesuit Colleges and Universities." Wikipedia

Fauci used his profession to carry forward the global, papal/Jesuit agenda for the world. In a forthcoming chapter, we will see clearly what that agenda is. Fauci is not a calm, sensible man, but rather a cool, calculating medical madman in the Beltway!!

The Coronavirus by Bill Hughes. Chapter 2. Conspiracy

At the United Nations on November 10, 2001, United States President George W. Bush denounced the emergence of “outrageous conspiracy theories ... that attempt to shift the blame away from the terrorists, themselves, away from the guilty.” Later, as media exposure of conspiracy theories of the events of 9/11 increased, U.S. Government agencies and the Bush Administration issued responses to the theories, including a formal analysis by the National Institute of Standards and Technology (NIST) about the collapse of the World Trade Center, a revised 2006 State Department webpage to debunk the theories, and a strategy paper referred to by President Bush in an August 2006 speech, which declared that terrorism springs from "subcultures of conspiracy and misinformation," and that "terrorists recruit more effectively from populations whose information about the world is contaminated by falsehoods and corrupted by conspiracy theories." Clearly, former President Bush is not happy with conspiracy theories. Since he isn't, this has set a precedent among people that the idea of conspiracy is purely a theory and that there is no basis to it. Well.....

George W. Bush attended Yale University and was a member of a Secret Society while there. The name of the Society was the Order of Skull and Bones. In order for Bush to become a member, he had to go through an initiation rite. In this rite, Bush vowed absolute obedience to three representatives. In the book, Codeword Barbelon by P. D. Stuart, it states that Bush bowed to the head of Freemasonry, the Pope, and the Jesuit General. Pages 339-341 declare this truth. Bush sold his soul to these entities and would do ANYTHING they told him to do. Any vows of loyalty to his country would mean NOTHING to a member of Skull and Bones. George Bush followed the leading of these powers while in the White House. Why would Bush speak out so forcefully against the idea of conspiracy was because he was part of a massive conspiracy?!

So, what of conspiracy? Is there really a conspiracy? Is it a theory or is it a fact? Is anyone who believes in a conspiracy a nut or is he right on the money? According to Webster's dictionary, a conspiracy is "An agreement to perform together an illegal, wrongful, or subversive act.

2. A group of conspirators.

3. An agreement between two or more persons to commit a crime or accomplish a legal purpose through illegal action.

4. A joining or acting together, as if by sinister design: a secret plan to carry out an illegal or harmful act.

5. The act of making such plans.

Conspiracy – a secret agreement between two or more people to perform an unlawful act.

So, a conspiracy is two or more people or groups united together with a sinister purpose. Well, you say, there are so many voices out there. How do I know which one to trust that will be giving an unbiased view? Those are fair comments. The only unbiased, clear book that will give us the answer is the Bible. Revelation 17 and 18 answer this question of conspiracy very clearly if we are open to hear what it says. We are immediately confronted in these chapters with a monolithic power called Babylon the Great. "And upon her forehead was a name written, MYSTERY, BABYLON THE GREAT, THE MOTHER OF HARLOTS AND ABOMINATIONS OF THE EARTH." Revelation 17:5 interestingly enough, the Protestant Reformers agreed on very little, BUT they all agreed on who Babylon the Great was. Listen to them speak.

Luther: "nothing else than the kingdom of Babylon and of very Antichrist. For who is the man of sin and the son of perdition, but he who by his teaching and his ordinances increases the sin and perdition of souls in the church; while he yet sits in the church as if he were God? All these conditions have now for many ages been fulfilled by the papal tyranny." (Martin Luther, First Principles, pp. 196-197)

Luther: "Luther ... proved, by the revelations of Daniel and St. John, by the epistles of St. Paul, St. Peter, and St. Jude, that the reign of Antichrist, predicted and described in the Bible, was the Papacy ... And all the people did say, Amen! A holy terror seized their souls. It was Antichrist whom they beheld seated on the pontifical throne. This new idea, which derived greater strength from the prophetic descriptions launched forth by Luther into the midst of his contemporaries, inflicted the most terrible blow on Rome." Taken from J. H. Merle Daubigny's History of the Reformation of the Sixteen Century, book VI, chapter xii, p. 215.

Calvin: "But to conclude this point in a few words: I deny that See to be Apostolical, wherein naught is seen but a shocking apostasy – I deny him to be the vicar of Christ, who, in furiously persecuting the gospel, demonstrates by his conduct that he is Antichrist – I deny him to be the successor of Peter, who is doing his utmost to demolish every edifice that Peter built – and I deny him to be the head of the Church, who by his tyranny lacerates and dismembers the Church, after dissevering her from Christ, her true and only Head.–Calvin, "Tracts and Letters" vol 1, 219-220.

Knox: "Yea, to speak it in plain words; lest that we submit ourselves to Satan, thinking that we submit ourselves to Jesus Christ, for, as for your Roman kirk, as it is now corrupted, and the authority thereof, whereon stands the hope of your victory, I no more doubt but that it is the synagogue of Satan, and the head thereof, called the pope, to be that man of sin, of whom the apostle speaks." (John Knox, The History of the Reformation of Religion in Scotland, p.65)

Knox: Knox wrote to abolish "that tyranny which the pope himself has for so many ages exercised over the church" and that the pope should be recognized as "the very antichrist, and son of perdition, of whom Paul speaks." Taken from "The Zurich Letters" pg. 199 by John Knox.

Wesley: "The man of sin, the son of perdition– ...in many respects, the Pope has an indisputable claim to those titles. He is, in an emphatical sense, the man of sin, as he increases all manner of sin above measure. And he is, too, properly styled, the son of perdition, as he has caused the death of numberless multitudes, both of his opposers and followers, destroyed innumerable souls, and will himself perish everlastingly. He it is that opposes himself to the emperor, once his rightful sovereign; and that exalts himself above all that is called God, or that is worshipped, commanding angels, and putting kings under his feet, both of whom are called gods in scripture; claiming the highest power, the highest honor; suffering himself, not once only, to be styled God or vice-god. Indeed no less is implied in his ordinary title, "Most Holy Lord," or, "Most Holy Father." So that he sits enthroned in the temple of God – Mentioned Rev. 11:1. Declaring himself that he is God, claiming the prerogatives which belong to God alone.—Explanatory Notes Upon the New Testament, p. 216)”

Roger Williams: [speaking of the Pope, Williams said]: “the pretended Vicar of Christ on earth, who sits as God over the Temple of God, exalting himself not only above all that is called God, but over the souls and consciences of all his vassals, yea over the Spirit of Christ, over the Holy Spirit, yea, and God himself...speaking against the God of heaven, thinking to change times and laws; but he is the son of perdition (II Thess. 2).” The Prophetic Faith of Our Fathers, by Froom, Vol. 3, pg. 52.

Westminster Confession: ““There is no other head of the church but the Lord Jesus Christ. Nor can the pope of Rome in any sense be head thereof; but is that Antichrist, that man of sin and son of perdition that exalteth himself in the church against Christ and all that is called God.” Taken from Philip Schaff’s, The Creeds of Christendom, With a History and Critical Notes, III, p. 658, 659, Ch. 25, sec. 6.

Cotton Mather: “The oracles of God foretold the rising of an Antichrist in the Christian Church: and in the Pope of Rome, all the characteristics of that Antichrist are so marvelously answered that if any who read the Scriptures do not see it, there is a marvelous blindness upon them.” Taken from The Fall of Babylon by Cotton Mather in Froom’s book, The Prophetic Faith of Our Fathers, Vol. 3, pg. 113.

All Reformers: “Wycliffe, Tyndale, Luther, Calvin, Cranmer; in the seventeenth century, Bunyan, the translators of the King James Bible and the men who published the Westminster and Baptist confessions of Faith; Sir Isaac Newton, Wesley, Whitfield, Jonathan Edwards; and more recently Spurgeon, Bishop J.C. Ryle and Dr. Martin Lloyd-Jones; these men among countless others, all saw the office of the Papacy as the antichrist.” Taken from All Roads Lead to Rome, by Michael de Semlyen. Dorchester House Publications, p. 205. 1991.

According to the Reformers of the Protestant denominations, the papal power is Babylon the Great, the Mother of harlots; she is the antichrist and the man of sin, and she is seeking to rule the world one last time! Is anyone working with her in this effort? Revelation 17:2 and 18 record for us these insightful words, “With whom the kings of the earth have committed fornication, and the inhabitants of the earth have been made drunk with the wine of her fornication.” Verse 18 says, “And the woman which thou sawest is that great city, which reigneth over the kings of the earth.” Wow! The political leaders of the world, be they dictators, prime ministers, presidents, premiers, or the like, the Bible says these political powers are puppets in the hands of the papacy! Rome herself has made this very clear in her own publications. ““Why, if the government of the United States were at war with the Church, we would say tomorrow, ‘To Hell with the government of the United States;’ and if the church and all the governments of the world were at war, we would say: ‘To Hell with all the governments of the world.’ Why it is the pope has such tremendous power? Why the pope is the ruler of the world. All the emperors, all the kings, all the princes, all the presidents of the world are as these ALTAR BOYS of mine.” Priest Phelan, Western Watchman, June 27, 1912, emphasis supplied. Pray, friend, as you never have before that political leaders would throw off the wicked shackles of Rome and stand in their God ordained positions!

Do we have a conspiracy yet? Remember, Webster's told us that a conspiracy is 'an agreement between two or more persons to commit a crime or accomplish a legal purpose through illegal action.' So far, Revelation 17 and 18 have told us emphatically that we have a CONSPIRACY and that is a FACT! You can take that to the bank. Friend, you may say, "Oh, the leader of my country would never do ANYTHING bad and the Roman Catholic leadership are ALL fine men of God! How dare you say such things! I didn't say them, Jesus did! The Lord Jesus loves you and me more than any leader or prelate. He would never lie to you! He wants to save you in His soon, coming kingdom.

Does it stop there? Is it just the papacy and the leaders of our world who are involved in a sinister plot to entrap us all in rebellion against the principles of Heaven? The Bible does not stop there. Revelation 18:11-15 declares, "And the merchants of the earth shall weep and mourn over her; for no man buyeth their merchandise any more. The merchandise of gold, and silver, and precious stones, and of pearls, and fine linen, and purple, and silk, and scarlet, and all thyine wood, and all manner vessels of ivory, and all manner vessels of most precious wood, and of brass, and iron, and marble, And cinnamon, and odours, and ointments, and frankincense, and wine, and oil, and fine flour, and wheat, and beasts, and sheep, and horses, and chariots, and slaves, and souls of men. And the fruits that thy soul lusted after are departed from thee, and all things which were dainty and goodly are departed from thee, and thou shalt find them no more at all. The merchants of these things, which were made rich by her, shall stand afar off for the fear of her torment, weeping and wailing..."

The merchants of the earth? The Bible says the merchants are those who buy and sell every commodity known to man. Those people who sell oil and have stores all over the world and trade worldwide. These are people that tell bankers what to do. The worlds wealthy remain rich as they are willing to sell their souls to Rome/Jesuits. Revelation 18:15 is clear; the papacy rules the rich. The international bankers go as the papacy bids her. While these wealthy people are ruled over by Rome, remember, these wealthy people control the media. So, the papacy/Jesuits tell the wealthy what they want in the media and the wealthy tell the media people what to say! This is all locked together in a global conspiracy!

Now, we have three entities tied together; the Papal power/Jesuits, the political power of earth, and the wealthy. With every word comes a wider enveloping conspiracy. Are there any other partners in this heinous plan against humanity? Well, Revelation 17:5 says, "And upon her forehead was a name written, MYSTERY, BABYLON THE GREAT, THE MOTHER OF HARLOTS AND ABOMINATIONS OF THE EARTH." Well, the papacy is the Mother whore. Thus, a false church is identified as an impure woman. Then, the harlot daughters must be the churches today that are following in the footsteps of Rome! Alberto Rivera said that there aren't any mainstream churches today that have not been taken over by Rome. "all the mainstream churches were taken over by 1980. Dr. Rivera explained that when he was under the extreme oath of the Jesuits, he was told that a secret sign was to be given to the Jesuits world-wide when the ecumenical movement had successfully wiped out Protestantism, in preparation for the signing of a concordat between the Vatican and the U.S. "The sign was to be when a President of the U.S. took his oath of office facing an obelisk. For the first time in U.S. history, the swearing in ceremonies were moved to the West front of the Capitol, and President Reagan faced the Washington Monument. This happened January 20, 1981." Jack Chick, The Godfathers, Alberto Part Three, Chick Publications, page 26 Is that why all churches today are silent on declaring the papal power to be the antichrist of the Bible? Is that why all churches today are involved in ecumenical gatherings where truth is destroyed and it is all about sacrificing historic beliefs of the past? Pray for men who will stand up and declare the truth of God! "The greatest want of the world is the want of men – men who will not be bought or sold; men who in their inmost souls are true and honest; men who do not fear to call sin by its right name; men whose conscience is as true to duty as the needle to the pole; men who will stand for the right though the heavens fall." (Education, p. 57).

Now, we have four groups united together against God and His truth. The papacy/Jesuits, the political leaders, the wealthy, and the churches all together to rebel against the Lord Jesus and His truth. That is a conspiracy! Fact! There is one last thing Rome uses for her wicked purposes. "And in her was found the blood of prophets, and of saints, and of all that were slain upon the earth." Rev. 18:24 History records for us that the papacy/Jesuits killed millions through time. Those who dared to follow the teachings of the Bible were hunted, slaughtered, split in two, and destroyed by Rome. The Inquisition was just one tool in her arsenal. However, the Bible says the papacy is responsible for killing machines that eliminate people. Killing machines like war, terror attacks; anything that leads to the deaths of millions of people rests at the footsteps of the Vatican! What about pandemics that kill millions, yeah, billions, before this thing is all over?

Are you saying that Rome/Jesuits had something to do with the current pandemic? Are you saying the papacy is behind this global tragedy that has killed hundreds of thousands of people to date? What an idiot you are; everyone knows it originated in Wuhan, China and that is the end of the story! We have been told by the media that it originated there and it did! Ah, but who was behind it? Who pushed the program in Wuhan that has caused a global tragedy? Are you ready to listen?

Chapter 1. Deception

The Coronavirus by Bill Hughes. Chapter 1.
Deception

He was right way too many times for anyone not to take what He said seriously. Every single prediction He made came to pass. It would be very serious not to heed advice He may have for those living toward the end of the world. The Man referred to is Jesus and this is His warning.

Jesus was at the end of His life and the professed people of God were plotting His life. He told them that their persistent rebellion would bring upon them destruction. Jesus said, "O Jerusalem, Jerusalem, thou that killest the prophets, and stonest them which are sent unto thee, how often would I have gathered thy children together, even as a hen gathereth her chickens under her wings, and ye would not! Behold, your house is left unto you desolate. For I say unto you, ye shall not see me henceforth, till ye shall say, blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord." Matthew 23:37-39 In these tragic words, Jesus told the Jews that their temple would be destroyed. This was a most stunning thing to predict, but He had been right too many times before to not take Him very, very, seriously.

Herod's temple was a wonder of the ancient world. White marble in appearance, it had the look of being impregnable. However, Jesus said it was coming down and down it came in 70AD before the onslaught of Titus and the Romans. Among those who were most stunned by what Jesus said were His disciples. Shortly after this, Jesus reiterated what He had already said, saying, "See ye not all these things? Verily I say unto you, there shall not be left here one stone upon another that shall not be thrown down. And as he sat upon the Mount of Olives, the disciples came unto him privately, saying; tell us, when shall these things be? And what shall be the sign of thy coming, and of the end of the world?" Matthew 24:2, 3

The disciples were convinced that when the temple was destroyed Jesus would come the second time to this earth. They put the two events together. However, the two events didn't happen at the same time. The temple was destroyed in 70 AD and Jesus has yet to come the second time. When answering the disciples two fold question, Jesus only gave one answer. That means that what He said applies not only to the events to take place around the destruction of the temple, but the same events would occur just before His Second Coming! That means that what Jesus said has a double application. What Jesus said had meaning for the people living around 70 AD and His words have meaning for us today!

What did Jesus tell us? Here we go, "And Jesus answered and said unto them, Take heed that no man deceive you. For many shall come in my name, saying, I am Christ; and shall deceive many. And ye shall hear of wars and rumors of wars: see that ye be not troubled: for all these things must come to pass, but the end is not yet. For nation shall rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom: and there shall be famines, and pestilences, and earthquakes, in divers places." Matthew 24:4-7 Twice in those verses, Jesus told us to watch out for deception. In Matthew 24:11, we read, "And many false prophets shall rise, and shall deceive many." Finally, in Verse 24, Jesus said, "For there shall arise false Christs, and false prophets, and shall shew great signs and wonders; insomuch that, if it were possible, they shall deceive the very elect."

Whenever Jesus wanted to stress something, He would say, "Verily, verily, I say unto you." He would repeat verily twice for emphasis. In Matthew 24, for those living at the end of earth's history, Jesus repeated a word four times, and said, "You better watch out. DECEPTION will be so thick you could cut it with a knife. Watch out what you are told! Beware!"

Now, before going any further, let us be very clear on what deception is. Webster's dictionary tells us, deception is "deceitfulness, duplicity, double-dealing, fraud, trickery". Let me illustrate this for you from an experience I had when I was in the eighth grade. My junior high school had a flag football team. On our championship team, we had one play that always scored a touchdown. The reason it was so successful was because we used deception. Let me explain briefly. The flanker would spread out wide to the right of the formation. As the quarterback, me, called the signals, he would come in motion back toward me. By the time I said three, he was close in proximity to me. I would turn, lateral the ball to him, and then my two backs, Brian and Bill, would block around the left end. We ran this play twice on first and second down.

On third down, we did the identical thing. As I started calling the signals, the flanker, Kevin, would start toward me. The other team KNEW exactly what we were going to do. They started moving toward the side of the field where they KNEW Kevin would be shortly. In fact, they started smiling at me as they moved over to the side, waiting for what would SURELY occur. Well, I pitched the ball to Kevin and we started around the end as always, EXCEPT for one thing. My speedy halfback, Brian, didn't go to block. He reversed his field, took the ball from Kevin's outer hip, and made his way down the opposite sideline where nobody was. The other team pulled Kevin's flags and was so happy with themselves, figuring they got us. All the time, Brian was running down the opposite sideline for a touchdown.

It worked to perfection. We had deceived the other team into believing that Kevin would carry it again around the corner, and while they were so happy, the real play was happening in a totally different area. The other side of the field was where things were happening and the other team didn't know that! They were deceived, faked out, and tricked! And, Jesus said this would be happening down toward the end of earth's history! He told us to watch out. While everything is being focused and centered on something, the REAL events are happening in another area of the world. Could that be happening to us today? Is the coronavirus, in which many people are tragically dying, being used today by certain powerful groups in our world to bring about their agenda? While everyone focuses on this virus, are other things happening in our world that could lead to terrible results for everyone on this planet?

Jesus told us, "Take heed that no man deceive you. For many shall come in my name, saying, I am Christ; and shall deceive many." Matthew 24:4, 5 He has been right too many times to not take what He says very, very, seriously. Now, let's weigh something for a moment. Where do we receive most of our information today? What mechanisms are used to communicate to people in the timeliest manner and to reach the most people at once? Clearly, the media is what is used very effectively to communicate to the populace. We get the great bulk of our messages of communication from the television, the radio, newspapers, magazines, and the internet. Is it possible that the media we are listening to is controlled by powerful people behind the scenes? Is it possible that these power groups are dictating what people are told in order to help the masses embrace an agenda? You know, I grew up on Walter Cronkite and David Brinkley and thought they were the finest of men. I'm sure many of us feel the same about David Muir, Katie Couric, George Stephanopoulos and Diane Sawyer today.

With Jesus' warning ringing in our ears and the undeniable fact that media is the way we receive messages today, a statement by John Swinton hits us square between the eyes. Swinton was a preeminent journalist over a century ago. Swinton declared at a press club dinner in his honor, "There is no such thing, at this date of the world's history, in America, as an independent press. You know it and I know it. There is not one of you who dares to write your honest opinions, and if you did, you know beforehand that it would never appear in print. I am paid weekly for keeping my honest opinion out of the paper I am connected with. Others of you are paid similar salaries for similar things, and any of you who would be so foolish as to write honest opinions would be out on the streets looking for another job. If I allowed my honest opinions to appear in one issue of my paper, before twenty-four hours my occupation would be gone. The business of the journalists is to destroy the truth, to lie outright, to pervert, to vilify, to fawn at the feet of mammon, and to sell his country and his race for his daily bread. You know it and I know it, and what folly is this toasting an independent press? We are the tools and vassals of rich men behind the scenes. We are the jumping jacks, they pull the strings and we dance. Our talents, our possibilities and our lives are all the property of other men. We are intellectual prostitutes." (Source: Labor's Untold Story, by Richard O. Boyer and Herbert M. Morais, published by United Electrical, Radio & Machine Workers of America, NY, 1955/1979.)

The quote raises the issue of whether there is not continuing truth in Swinton's remarks, and whether some candid journalist might not be able to fairly say similar things today. Anyone who has associated closely with journalists can hardly avoid finding a ring of truth in such words, and the best evidence lies in the actual product of journalists and how well, or how poorly, it both agrees with and covers what actually happens, especially involving such things as corruption and abuse of power. Swinton declared that journalists are the tools of rich men behind the scenes. The journalists are puppets in the hands of the wealthy that control them. In order to save their job, the journalist or anchor will readily lie, deceive (there is that word), say whatever they are told in order to guide people down the path of their handlers-the wealthy of the world! Just one example of this would be the control of media by one Rupert Murdoch. His holdings over the media of this world are staggering.

So, does the world's wealthy have an agenda for the populace of this world? Are they using their wealth and power to communicate to this planet what they want them to know about this virus in order to carry out their agenda for this world? Are their powers above the wealthy people of the world who also have global agendas and the coronavirus is part of finalizing their plans? Does this sound like a conspiracy to you? People shy away from conspiracy today, poo pooing it as conspiracy theorists. Probably just some cuckoo heads. We will look at this in our next chapter. Jesus warned us about deception. I hope we are listening.

Hurricanes and Geoengineering – Weather Warfare!

I've known about the use of weather manipulation as a method of warfare from years ago. Because of what happened with Hurricane Helene and what may happen with Hurricane Milton, I must tell you what reputable men have to say about this subject.

Dane Wigington explains to Col. Douglas Macgregor how geoengineering may be used in hurricanes and Weather Warfare.

Dane Wigington of Geoengineering Watch is the executive producer for the ground breaking climate engineering documentary, "The Dimming". He has a background in solar energy and was a former employee of Bechtel Power Corporation. Dane was also a licensed contractor in California and Arizona.

Douglas Macgregor is an American retired colonel, government official, author, consultant, and political commentator.

Transcript

All right. Hi, I'm Douglas Macgregor, CEO for Our Country Our Choice. We have with us one of our fan favorites, if you will, and that's Dane Wigington, and he heads Geoengineering Watch.

He's got some interesting comments today in connection with the vicious Hurricane Helene that has done so much damage to us. Welcome, Dane.

Dane Wigington: Thank you for your continued attention to what's occurring in our skies, Colonel MacGregor. This is nothing short of all-out weather warfare at this point. We can speculate about the agendas and objectives being carried out, but the fact that these storms are absolutely being manipulated and steered is inarguable. The denial of this fact is absolutely ludicrous at this point.

We know the U.S. military and others around the globe, but U.S. military has been engaged in these operations since 1947, Project Cirrus. How far have they come since that point? So the cyclones are being kept weakened over water with manipulation of atmospheric pressure zones, and once they're near enough to the land-based network of frequency transmitters, the NEXRAD network, they are steered, and that steering is incredibly inarguable if we look at the animation of the frequency transmissions and their interaction with the storm, in this case, Hurricane Helene. We recorded that, and that video, if we can roll that now, the interaction is absolutely inarguable.

Man speaking from video being shown:

"[Is this the] result of natural processes and climate patterns, or was it manipulated? The circular blue flashes seen in this video are frequency transmissions from the NEXRAD network of transmitter installations. All available science evidence makes clear that atmospheric frequency transmissions can and do have a repelling effect on air masses, especially if and when the air masses have been seeded with electrically conductive nanoparticles.

The brighter the blue flash from a frequency transmission installation, the more pronounced and powerful the repelling effect on any air mass or storm in the vicinity will be. Where there are no blue flashes, there is no transmission, thus no repelling effect, thus no resistance for a migrating storm. Translation: A migrating storm will be hindered from moving toward frequency transmissions and will easily migrate in a direction with no transmissions.

So again, I ask, was Hurricane Helene's path and behavior just an act of nature, or was it engineered? You decide."

Douglas Macgregor: Well, Dane, the question here is, how does this hurricane's path differ from others that we've seen? I've already had a lot of people call me from the Asheville area talk specifically about the horrendous damage, and many of them pointed out that that is not Hurricane Alley, per se. It's not an area that normally attracts storms. Can you help us understand this?

Dane Wigington: Well, the bottom line is it was directed there, as the transmission recordings clearly show. They kept that moisture corralled there to deluge in the same location. So again, these are patented technologies, and the fact that we have entire so-called meteorological community denying that this is going on to protect their paychecks and pensions is absolutely criminal at this point.

We know we have private defense contractors that are neck deep in the patents that manipulate these storms, Raytheon, Lockheed Martin. We know those two in particular do the weather modeling for the nation's weatherman, National Weather Service and NOAA. Again, both agencies have an illegal federal gag order on them.

So at this point, this is an emperor has no clothes moment. That's the best description I can give for something that is so blatantly obvious and inarguable, can only be considered weather warfare at this point. And the fact that, again, the so-called science community is denying this manipulation is criminal, it's absolutely criminal, Colonel Macgregor.

Douglas Macgregor: Why do you think the Asheville area in particular turned out to be a target? Does it have anything to do with the mining operations there for lithium or quartz? Is that just coincidental? I'm just curious.

Again, people in Asheville are asking these questions. They're trying to find a rationale for why they ended up being in the middle of this.

Dane Wigington: Well, certainly it's hard to call anything a coincidence at this point, isn't it? I mean, we have so many agendas and objectives being carried out with every action of the military industrial complex and the money printer bankers that fund and control them ultimately. And we have a cyclonic rotation like this that does that kind of decimation inland. And yet we have in the record warm Gulf of Mexico, nothing develops, nothing spins or damages the oil infrastructure there. Why is that? We see any rotation that comes anywhere near the oil infrastructure is immediately broken up. Yet we have this type scenario happening inland.

So again, once you interfere with the climate system, the entire system becomes derailed. And we have a global network interfering with the system. We have documents at geoengineeringwatch.org, some hundreds of pages long, some nearly a thousand pages long, documenting the international cooperation in these programs, even between otherwise adversarial nations.

So again, they will try to hide and deny these programs until the last possible hour, Colonel Macgregor, because if the public realizes the entire weather system has been derailed and is being manipulated and no weather cataclysm can then be said to be natural, which means that you can't deny the connection of climate engineering for any event anywhere, the liability issue is incalculable.

And so again, even this one issue that just happened in the Carolinas, how could you possibly even calculate the liability issue there when hundreds of people are still missing? I believe a hundred already officially declared dead, but hundreds still missing. If this issue is brought out into the open, the fur is going to fly, Colonel Macgregor.

Douglas Macgregor: If you can do so, could you tell us about some of your recent discussions, conversations, briefings that you've had with political leaders from the states in question that have asked you what you think? First of all, what did they specifically ask you, if you can tell us, and how did they respond to your answers?

Dane Wigington: Yes, Colonel Macgregor. I had an hour conference call yesterday with the representatives and senators from the Carolinas, and we presented the data to them to answer their questions about how this manipulation occurs. They realized this was not a natural event. They're trying to digest the fact that their states were literally under assault from weather modification operations that are clearly connected with DOD operations, and we can speculate again on the agendas and objectives being carried out, but the fact that the storm was manipulated is absolutely inarguable.

We know that technology to stop these rotations from even occurring has existed for decades with the manipulation of atmospheric pressure zones. HAARP in Alaska is one example many people are familiar with. That's an ionosphere heater. That's a weapon of mass destruction, period. It can cause an electrical chain reaction in the ionosphere, which heats it to extraordinarily high temperatures, which causes the atmosphere to bulge up and down. The downward push creates a high-pressure dome that can steer the jet stream, and the same type of manipulation can create low-pressure zones.

When they have this type of power over the climate system, they can make or break these storms anytime they want, and again, what we see now is storms kept weaker as they're over the ocean because they're harder to steer until they reach the land-based network of transmitters, and then we have, Colonel Macgregor, rapid intensification. You've heard that term probably a lot lately because that's how they manipulate these storms, and again, we have Acapulco last October being the extreme example of rapid intensification. An insignificant low-pressure system developed into the strongest Cat 5 hurricane to ever hit that part of the world in less than 24 hours laid waste to Acapulco. And by the way, Hurricane John, which just hit Acapulco again as Hurricane Helene was wreaking havoc in the Carolinas. Not many people know that, so Acapulco just got dealt another blow.

So again, how many agendas and objectives are being carried out when we know they can manipulate these storms and we know they can make or break them anytime they want. And again, I bring up the oil infrastructure in the Gulf of Mexico that seems to magically miss any sort of damaging storm again and again and again while the storms wreak havoc inland and on shorelines. It's not a coincidence. They have that much sway over the storms.

Douglas Macgregor: Well, when you highlighted these anomalies to the audience of political leaders and representatives and so forth, how did they react? Did they react with a degree of serious skepticism, or did they take you seriously?

Dane Wigington: They're in shock. They're in shock, because when you realize that you're literally at war with those who control the federal government, how does one digest that? And when we go all the way back to, again, as I've referenced many times, 1962, 62 years ago, Lyndon Johnson, President Johnson, then stating we had the power to control the world's cloud layer and he who controls the weather controls the world, we're seeing this happen all over the globe. We're seeing countries like Dubai, as you remember recently, got two years worth of rain, two years worth in six hours, right after they decide to ditch the dollar. Is that a coincidence? We see this kind of event over and over.

So climate engineering is the crown jewel weapon of the military-industrial complex, because they can and are bringing populations to their knees without those populations ever even knowing they're under assault, and they blame it on nature. That's why this is such a coveted weapon, and they're not about to give it up, even though it's destroying the ozone layer, contaminating the entire planet.

Every breath we take is contaminated with climate engineering fallout. Part of that is nanoplastics. Anyone who looks, I challenge your listeners to look, nanoplastic contamination, human organs, we know it's showing up in the brain, all of our organs, and we know there's decomposing plastics in the environment, we're not denying that. But when you have this type of ubiquitous contamination of nanoplastics that appears to be a manufactured particle, that's not just decomposing plastics.

So again, this assault is not just environmental, it's a contamination of virtually the entire planet and all of us.

Douglas Macgregor: Well, you paint a very grim and frightening picture, and I'm sure that's necessary to get people's attention. Now that you have people's attention and you're talking to an audience inside Our Country, Our Choice, but also this will eventually go out to others, what do you want American citizens to do who are listening to you right now? What do you recommend that they do?

Dane Wigington: I'm asking them to behave as if they're fighting for their lives, because they are. And I can't take the long way around the barn with this. Too many people want to pretend there's some happy ending if we just take a few meager steps in a particular direction or post something on a blog somewhere. We have to absolutely bring this issue out into the full light of day. That's the only chance we have of stopping it from the inside out, so that those participating, and this is so very key, our military brothers and sisters and defense industry families and participants there, so they understand that they're participating in their own near-term demise. We have to push this issue out into the full light of day, Colonel Macgregor.

And this issue is connected to so many other lethal immediate threats. For example, the disintegrating ozone layer, we are getting UVC on the surface now. That's the last spectrum of UV radiation before x-ray.

Climate engineering is the core causal factor, not just the sprayed particulates, which cause an oxidative effect on the ozone layer disintegrating it, but the frequency transmissions that are being used, just like you saw with Hurricane Helene, all of this destroying the ozone layer. Now we're susceptible to a CME, a Coronal Mass Ejection, because we don't have the atmospheric protection. Not only is it frying plants, foliage, insects, plankton, but we're susceptible to a large coronal mass ejection, which would shut down grid power around the globe, which would cause nuclear power plants to not be able to cool themselves. And now we have Fukushima times 100 or 200. So from every conceivable direction, what's happening in our skies holds all of our futures in the near-term balance.

Douglas Macgregor: Well, soldiers, sailors, airmen, and Marines know from experience, it's one thing to ask questions and urge action, but it's another to put yourself at severe risk. And unfortunately for them, those of us in uniform right now, they're going to look at this and they're going to say, well, it makes sense to me, but what kind of a response am I going to elicit from the chain of command? And historically, the chain of command usually answers, shut up, get back to work. There's not a problem. If there is, we'll let you know.

So what about the rest of us, those of us who are not in the active military? What do you want them to do? Can they write congressmen, contact congressmen, senators? How do you want them to go forward with this?

Dane Wigington: Yes, to start spot fires of awareness. And we have tried to provide those tools at geoengineeringwatch.org. Our groundbreaking documentary, The Dimming, which includes two US Air Force generals testifying that these programs are real and ongoing, former Canadian minister of defense, former US presidential cabinet members, and former government scientists. That film is the best one-stop tool to introduce this issue. And that link can be emailed to all of the above. All that you just mentioned, elected officials, environmental groups, farm groups, organizations, the list is endless to start a spot fire of awareness.

And in spite of draconian social media censorship, our film, The Dimming, is now over 25 million views. People are waking up to this.

And again, our printed materials help as well. We pass those on, by the way, for less than our cost of producing and shipping. Our only goal, my only goal is to see this nightmare in our skies exposed fully once and for all and brought to a halt so that the planet can respond on its own to the damage done and not continue to sink with this toxic straitjacket of climate engineering.

How many blue skies do you see, Colonel Macgregor? Do you see any where you're at? Because we don't see any true blue skies here at best it's silvery white.

Douglas Macgregor: Well, I see some blue skies occasionally, but admittedly, lately, we haven't had much. But that I attribute to the rain.

Look, this strikes me as an issue that should spread like wildfire on this new platform, social media platform that we have been urging our members to join called Republic. Because Republic is designed under no circumstances to be censored or canceled. In other words, it is a true free speech platform.

(Note from James: I can't find the link to Republic. If anyone knows, please write it in the comments section.)

And if you pay to be on it, then you're free to explore, to speak, to write, to display whatever you think is important for your community. And this is the kind of thing that really needs to reach people at the lowest level in every community, because that's where the change has to come from. Those are the people that can hold people accountable that are either appointed or elected to office.

So I hope people will do that. And we'll make that information available to them after this video. And I hope that we get all of the material that you've been discussing on that platform. It's very important.

Dane, thank you so much for being with us today. Continue to have God's blessing in the work that you're doing and be successful in the future. Thank you.

Dane Wigington: Thank you, Colonel Macgregor. And I stress to your listeners, your viewers, that there is no place to hide from what's taking place in our skies. Every breath we take, every bite of food, every drink of water, all of it is absorbing the contamination from what they're doing in our skies. And it's affecting the planet's ability to grow crops, forests, fisheries. They're all collapsing. Many causal factors. We've been bad stewards of the planet, but there's nothing that compares with what they're doing intentionally in our skies. So thank you and your staff and your platform for helping us to sound the alarm.

Douglas Macgregor: Sure. Thanks again, Dane. And that's it from Our Country Our Choice. And you heard the man. It's up to you. No one is going to rescue us. We have to act. Thanks so much. Bye-bye.

I've known about chemtrails from around 1999. Here's an article I posted in 2002:

Chemtrails in Japan.

That day was unusual for the amount of chemtrails. They were not something that occurred frequently in the area I lived in Japan, Niigata. My friend Patty in Kansas told me once her sky is always gray due to chemtrails! That's sad. I had plenty of blue sky days in Japan. The 5 years I lived on Guam there were no chemtrails, and there are none here in the sky of Northern Samar, the Philippines. I'm sorry for my friends in America who have had to endure them. Maybe this article will inspire you to complain louder to your local elected officials to have the government stop it!

Testimonials from Survivors of Hurricane Helene that Refute the Mainstream Media and the Government

My wife Tess found this on YouTube and shared it with me this morning. It's shocking testimonies from people in the areas where Hurricane Helene did considerable property damage and caused loss of life, up to one hundred times more than what's being reported by the mainstream media according to one witness in the area!

The title of the YouTube implies Hurricane Helene was an act of war against the American public! If that is true, the same can be said of Hurricane Milton.

Transcript of Hurricane Helene Is 5th Generation Warfare!:

Man who created this video: Before I start this video, I want to explain something to you. I had to get a crappy motel room because I had to make this video because this video is important. We are in the middle of a war right now and I'm going to prove this to you and show you all the receipts. Whether you decide to accept it or deny it is completely up to you. But everybody that has a platform (I was told this website is my platform) should be putting this information out because an entire town, all of its people have been decimated and abandoned by the government. Not only has the government turned its back on them, but the government that is there is trying to stop all the citizens from helping each other.

That's a little bit of overreach right there and it's going to get even worse. So here we go. If you've got a platform, you should be shining a light on this right now because the national news is not.

Here we go.

Testimonial from lady #1: We picked up a flight of pediatric medical supplies that were brought in and are going to North Asheville. We were sitting in the private portion of the airport and we got to overhear an awful lot.

The army pilots, the navy pilots, hospital representatives, there was a lot of chatter. While we were there, a private jet landed and four FEMA representatives got off. Four, four people off of a private jet.

Come to find out, and you're not going to hear this (implying we won't hear it from the mainstream media), so let me tell you. Come to find out Mission Hospital was told, a private hospital, that they are going to go ahead and be the morgue center for body recovery. All of the army Chinook helicopters you see flying overhead, they are doing body recovery.

FEMA said, and you can take this as a direct quote, that they are "too tied up at the border to send any more representatives. Yeah, at the border. So anyhow, I guess border control trumps whatever is going on here.

So they told Mission Hospital they are not sending refrigerated trucks so that they can stack the bodies up. And we also overheard that whatever fatality numbers you are hearing, and this is a quote, "go ahead and add a couple of zeros."

So FEMA's too busy with the border. A private hospital and the army are going to take over body recovery. And private individuals with their private helicopters and their private planes are the ones who are flying in supplies.

I was at hangar 10, I was picking up supplies. There was a stack for the Cajun Navy. There was a stack that looked like it was ASPCA. These are all being sent by private individuals. FEMA is doing nothing. Go ahead and share that.

Testimonial from lady #2: (Inaudible) left their home and came back the next day and found, they had 15 cats, five dogs, and a father-in-law. And found them all dead except for four cats. And the story was hard to hear. (She's crying.) But it's the look in her eyes that I can't, I can't forget.

Last night, somebody was at the river and just looking at the destruction and cars upside down. And she saw Halloween costumes floating down a river. And then she saw faces and realized they weren't costumes.

And she said, I've seen bodies and I'm not okay with that. And then somebody called and said, when is somebody gonna come collect all the bodies that have piled up along the embankment of the river? And then a man called saying that I need 911 at my house. And somebody said, why, are you okay? And he said, yes, I'm okay. But I opened my front door and there are several bodies in my front yard.

Man #1: You deserve to hear this. I'm a truck driver, all right? I have a 53 foot step deck. I've been trucking for about two and a half years. I have a YouTube channel. You can verify that on Baby Lion Hotshot.

Usually in a disaster situation, it is payday for truckers. We look for that hurricane. We look for that ice storm. There are generators coming to you. There's stuff coming out of military bases. There are excavators, skid steers, bulldozers, tree trimming equipment, and pumps, like water pumps to pump water out of places that have been flooded.

There are no loads on the load board coming to you within 125 miles of Asheville! It's called truck stop. This is where I find all my loads.

Chicago, Illinois, up at the top, within 250 miles of Chicago is where I'm gonna pick up. The second is the destination. So it goes origin, destination, watch.

See, the drop-off location. Let's do city. North Carolina, click it, boom.

All right. These are all $1.40 a mile loads, $1.39. That was posted yesterday. I mean, there's nothing. There's nothing. These are loads that you wouldn't even, nobody's taking them. They're just on the load board. They've been on there since yesterday. You can see, right?

Let's type in a different city. That's from Chicago. Maybe Tennessee, maybe Nashville is closer and they'd send resources from Nashville, Tennessee. Nashville, Tennessee, within 250 miles of Nashville to Asheville, North Carolina, within 125 miles. Let's see, there is, that's it. That's all the loads (implying not many. That's all the loads that are 28,000 pounds in load.

Man #2: I'm not a conspiracy theorist, but I mean, what the hell's going on here? I had brokers call me and tell me, Stu, have you seen any loads going to Asheville or like anywhere around the Carolinas, South Carolina, Georgia? Is there any like FEMA loads? There's none, zero! He's been a broker for six years and he is talking to other brokers. They're saying the same thing.

Man #3: Good morning, it's Wednesday after Helene here in North Carolina, just South of Asheville. And I still have no power and no water. I have occasional cell signal and I've got my Starlink.

I wanted to take a few moments to discuss some things that I've seen online and through the press that I find bothersome, because my experience here on the ground is different than the experience that's being espoused by our leaders.

Immediately after the storm, I was able to use my cell phone. I have one of those. And it told me that there were open routes out of the Asheville area all the way to Charlotte. Monday, I was able to drive down to South Carolina, just fine, thank you very much. I was able to gas up and get some food. On Saturday, I was able to get into Asheville.

I have a two-wheel drive vehicle. I do not possess helicopters or giant military bulldozers or bridge layers, just a two-wheel drive vehicle. And I got into Asheville. It took me six hours. I had to care because I was going in to help people. I'm not quite sure how a government that has the biggest military on the planet can't figure it out.

I'm not quite sure why that same government that has all the information-gathering techniques that it has and satellites, is telling people there's still no way to get into the area.
