

Genocide in Satellite Croatia Chapter IX. Silence at the Vatican

It is undeniable that Pavelic up until his death was protected by the Vatican and that even on his deathbed he received the papal blessing. Pope Pius XII and Stepinac always considered him a practicing Catholic. Therefore he and his Ustashi were protected and are still being protected by the Vatican, because of their devotion to the Roman Catholic Church, despite the odious crimes they committed.

“Ravening Wolves” by Monica Farrell – Part 2

In Darwin (Australia) a Mission Worker was seeking to lead an immigrant to Christ. The immigrant said to the Protestant Missionary, “I am not interested to discuss religion with you, but I am going to tell you something. We had our instructions, before we came into this country, to be ready at a given signal to murder every Australian man and woman who refused to submit to our holy Mother the Church.”

“Ravening Wolves” by Monica Farrell – Part 1

“Ravening Wolves” is yet another Jesuit suppressed book that the Vatican does not want you to read! It outlines the “Catholic Action” persecution of Orthodox Serbs by Roman Catholic Croats during World War II.

There remained only one solution for Pavelic and his henchmen—escape. The patriotic song “Za Dom Spretni” (Ready for Fatherland), no longer echoed throughout Croatia, where the only idea that obsessed countless people was for “everybody to run who could.”

Catholic propaganda has insisted that Stepinac was put in prison for his anti-Communist activities. Without in any way defending Communist justice, the writer is obliged to state for the record and emphasize that Stepinac was really tried for his collaboration with Ustashi and Nazis during the war.

Genocide in Satellite Croatia Chapter VI. The Death Camps

That the conversions to Catholicism and the exterminations took place simultaneously, after a well-defined plan, is shown not only by the words and behavior of the priests and the members of Croatian religious orders, but by the promotions and grades which they accumulated: priest, officer and police agent, and there were large numbers of them from the very first day that the satellite Croatian State was founded.

Genocide in Satellite Croatia Chapter V. Massacres and Forced Conversions

There were special bands who performed the massacres, and are probably still doing so, actually led and incited by Catholic priests and monks. This is more than confirmed. There was a monk near Travnik with the crucifix in one hand who was inciting a band of people whom he had organized and was leading. This happened in the first days after my arrival there. "This, therefore, means the renewal of medieval times," remarked the correspondent. "Yes, but made worse by machine guns, hand grenades, dynamite, barrels of gasoline and other means of terrorism."

Genocide in Satellite Croatia Chapter IV. The Massacres Begin

"This state, our country, is only for Croats and for no one else. There are no ways and means which we Croats will not use to make our country truly ours, and to cleanse it of all Orthodox Serbs. All those who came into our country 300 years ago must disappear. We make no attempt to conceal our intention. It is the policy of our state, and during its realization we shall do nothing else save follow the principles of the Ustashi."

Genocide in Satellite Croatia Chapter III. The Fall of Yugoslavia and the Creation of the Satellite State of Croatia

The capitulation of April 18, 1941 was immediately followed by the slicing up of the Yugoslav state, and it would seem that the vanquishers took a special savagery in tearing apart what the Treaty of Versailles had united into a single nation.

Genocide in Satellite Croatia Chapter II. Regency, Concordat and the Tripartite Pact

History of the concordat or agreement between the pope and Yugoslavia concerning the legal status of the Roman Catholic Church and the political situation just before the start of World War 2.

Genocide in Satellite Croatia

1941-1945 by Edmond Paris

Exaggerated nationalism, fascism and communism, as well as political and religious fanaticism, paved the way for the Second World War, thus bringing society down to a lower level of moral civilization, characterized by an incredible intolerance which was thought to have vanished with the Middle Ages.

Jesuit Plots – Chapter VIII. The Canonization Of More And Fisher: History Suppressed.

During 1934 Rome filled the columns of the British Press with articles on the proposed superstitious and pagan act of canonization of Sir Thomas More and Bishop John Fisher, Bishop of Rochester, who were beheaded in 1535, in the reign of Henry VIII, for denying the King's supremacy. Parliament had passed an Act abrogating the Papal Supremacy in England, and recognising that only of the King.

Jesuit Plots – Chapter VII. The Cause Of The Great Civil War

The greatest calamity of the reign of Charles I was the attempt of Archbishop Laud to reverse the Reformation in England and Scotland, and Romanize the Church of England. Laud was a thorough-going Romish idolator, with this difference, that he endeavoured to be Pope himself in England and to teach and practise the doctrines of the Church of Rome in the Church of England as Christianity.

Jesuit Plots – Chapter VI. The Armada Against England

The history of various Jesuit plots to murder the British Monarch, to blow up the Parliament with gunpowder and kill all the government officials, and to invade England with armies from Spain with the Spanish Armada.

Jesuit Plots – Chapter V. The Great Troubler

Amongst other things which this Humphrey Ely tells me, one is a great secret in the name of some Island (English) nobleman and of the “Jesuit Fathers themselves.” It was that the said nobles are determined to try to kill the Queen with their own hands if they are assured, at least verbally, by His Holiness that in so doing they would not fall into sin. Because of the dangerous nature of the enterprise they would risk instant death.

Jesuit Plots – Chapter IV. The First Public Record Office Surprise

The Old State Papers, recently recovered from the Vatican Archives, etc., clearly prove that many of those whom the Roman Church now designates as “Martyrs for their Religion” were really involved in Jesuit plots to murder the Queen and bring about the invasion of our Country by foreign armies.

Jesuit Plots – Chapter III. Irish Jesuits in Australia during the Great War

The Irish Jesuits controlled and directed from Dublin caused such an agitation in Australia in 1918, that the five Divisions (50,000 men), were withdrawn from the fighting line on October 6th, five weeks before the Armistice, whilst the Canadian, New Zealand, Newfoundland, and South African troops went right through to the end.

Jesuit Plots – Chapter II. Salutes and Military Honours for the Pope.

In secret Despatches handed over by the American Secret Service to the British Government after America came into the War (WWI), are many other Despatches proving that the Priests of the Church of Rome all over the world were working for the downfall of the British Empire, and the defeat of the Allies, so that the Pope might once again regain his position in the world as King of Kings. For this reason the Allied Powers refused to allow the Pope a seat at the Peace Conference in 1919. The Allies knew all about the Papal plots and indignantly spurned all emissaries of the Pope.

Jesuit Plots From Elizabethan To Modern Times – By Albert Close – Chapter I.

The Jesuit Order was the Satanic answer to the Reformation, endeavouring to restore the lost fortunes of the Papacy. What would it not give to again rule in England? Mr. Close reveals some of the criminal efforts of these “Shock troops of Rome”.

The Grand Design Exposed Chapter 17 Two Occult Powers United For Final World Control

The Church of Rome, as usual, has taught her people a deception – not, that the “catastrophe” that is about to fall upon the earth is the works of their own evil hands, but instead, it is taught that it will be the result of a prophecy of the Virgin Mary that has brought mankind under condemnation due to their refusal to worship according to Rome.
