

The Vatican's Immigration War

The current southern US border crisis is a plan formulated after the south and the Vatican lost the civil war with the Union. It's aim is a Vatican takeover of America.

Main Points of the US Border Crisis – A Planned Foreign Invasion

The article I transcribed on January 20, The US Border Crisis – A Planned Foreign Invasion is a long read, and that may discourage some people from reading it all. Because I consider what Doug Thornton has to say is vital for Americans to know, I compiled its main points in this post to make it only 1/10 of the length of the previous post.

For the record, I do not advocate acts of violence against government officials. I do not own a firearm, but neither do I live in America anymore. I'm not against getting a firearm if I live in an area of high crime. I believe one of the main reasons why America has not yet fallen into total tyranny is because of the Second Amendment of the Constitution, the right to bear arms. I believe if the government outlaws guns, only outlaws will have guns. And I can tell you for a fact, that this is the situation in Japan! Though the average Japanese citizen was disarmed long ago, the Japanese mafia – the Yakuza – have guns. They use them to shoot each other, rival gangs.

Doug Thornton is the host of a podcast called American Vendicta. He is also a retired US Marine and a former federal police officer who worked for the Department of Homeland Security for 10 years. He worked for the Federal Protective Service as the uniform law enforcement side of the federal government. Many times he went down to the border to assist units from Border Patrol and CBP (Customs and Border Protection) for their border operations.

The following quotations are all from Mr. Thornton. I slightly rewrote some of the things he said to make them clearer.

- The last 10 years we've had a million people yearly cross the border either illegally or coming through here and just slipping the system, then that's easily 10 million people. But what we typically say is for every million we don't catch. There are two to 3 million that get by. So if we take that estimate and then we flip it on its head, We're easily in the last decade at 30 to 40 million people undocumented.
- Many of them are multiple-time felons pedophiles, torturers, rapists, human traffickers, gun traffickers, terrorists, known cartels, and known gang affiliates like the MS 13 (an international criminal gang).
- You also then have other problems like diseases that come across. But one of the things that seems to slip the mind of Congress, though they know, is the amount of terrorism that comes across the border, the amount of known terrorism that's being found coming across the border that the FBI blatantly turns the other way.
- One of the simple forms of having a definition for invasion is an untold amount of people being granted access into the country against the will of the people there to deteriorate the laws and the customs and procedures of the people. Now, after that, if you are in the legislative system or the executive branch you will fully allow that to happen, knowing that you're bringing disease, crime, terrorism, and sex slave trafficking to include many children trafficked, not just into America, but from America, and then out of America, then you would be more defined as a traitor by that term.
- You take these people from socialist communist countries and they're men of fighting age. And they are bussed here. They didn't walk. They did not walk here. They were bussed here. Who bussed them? George Soros.
- The cartel is a Fortune 500 company. And we've known it. We've watched them. We monitor them. We observe them. They'll send us sometimes at these border patrol checkpoint stations, they'll send us an 18-wheeler filled with weed. You can smell it coming over the bridge. Then the dogs hit on it. And then we have a merry time tearing the truck apart. And it sucks us all in. And meanwhile, the truck full of fentanyl goes this way. Or a truck with a nuclear missile goes this way. We won't know because we're so busy with checking out the 18-wheeler filled with weed.
- If Donald Trump doesn't get re-elected, do you think the average person in America is going to sit back and not complain about it? And then from there, do you think there's a small group of people who aren't going to take up arms about it? January 6 was a precursor to what 2024 is. If you think of it as this, January 6 was planned in 2016. If that's true. Then 2024 was planned in 2020 in 2021 with January 6. So I believe that they are planning and building up the pressure building in the pot for a violent reaction from the people.
- And the Vatican plays a large part in it, Chris. You know this, we have NGOs, nongovernment organizations on the border that are helping affiliates, they're trying to bring these people coming across the border, who are not all Christians. They're bringing these people across the border and then they're funneling them all over the United States.
- You have entities like almost every Catholic Church, then to include the Red Cross that are all sponsored by the Vatican, and controlled by the Vatican. They are the main culprits and moving people. It's always been a Catholic Church that shows up somewhere at midnight with a van when we got, a busload or two of the illegals. And then they come and pick them up and they drive them away because they are helping the government with re-purposing these people, bringing them to other places.

- So if the government fails us, and they're obviously failing us for a reason, I don't care what Congressman comes out and grandstands for five minutes about how bad the border is. The majority of Republicans and Democrats are doing this.
- And Canada has its bigger point to play in this as well. This is also happening in Canada. Most people don't know this. You can take a flight from Mexico, direct flight into Canada, and then just walk right across the border.
- Mass migrants aren't going to South America to stay. They're all being sent to America. It's to destabilize. There can be no other reason except to destabilize the economy, rattle up the people, and destroy the inner workings of our government, especially by creating social disorder like crime.
- The inevitable goal is the invasion of America. Why stage a war, why float across an invasion force of people? If I was a diabolical person and I wanted to take down America, this is what I would do. I would pay your politicians to allow my army to come across. And it's so hard and too obvious to bring my army from Beijing and from St. Petersburg and Moscow over to Mexico, then we'll just hire our friends in South America, who are all on our side, and we'll send them up first. And that'll be the initial force. All you need is an initial force of people.
