

Genocide in Satellite Croatia Chapter I. The International Conspiracy Against Yugoslavia

The founding of the Kingdom of the Serbs, Croats and Slovenes (Yugoslavia) in 1918 aroused considerable jealousy among some of the neighboring countries. All the old motives for envy were sharpened as the government faced the difficulties of internal policy in the founding of a really national state. Hungary, thenceforward separated from Austria, coveted the fertile land of the Vojvodina to the North of Belgrade; Bulgaria continued to revindicate Macedonia in Southern Serbia; while Fascist Italy dreamed of increasing her "vital living space" by annexing Dalmatia, once ruled over by Venice.

Behind the Dictators – A Factual Analysis of the Relationship of Nazi-Fascism and Roman Catholicism by L. H. LEHMANN

The 19th century left us deplorably weak in true knowledge of the history of State-Church conflicts. The facts of human development since the Reformation have become so inextricably tangled, that we have ceased to try to unravel them.

The Catholic Church Heils Hitler by James J. Murphy

Germany's Catholic bishops have acknowledged that they were "complicit" in allowing the Nazis to rise to power and stood by while they launched World War II
